

Training and Placement Cell(2029-20)

Training and Placement Cell of the college is committed to train the students and help them secure places in reputed firms and companies. Dr. Rohit Kumar is the Training and Placement Officer of the college. Under the guidance of Principal Sir he put all his efforts for growing the placement graph of the College. Training and Placement Cell of the college signed an MOU with MEDHA during the session 2019-20. That conducted special classes to enhance soft skills and personality development of students. The training and placement cell actively organizes special lectures for the students to guide about the career opportunities, addressing the learning gaps.

Various activities organized by the Placement cell during session 2019-20.

Sr. No	Date	Activity
1.	17.09.2019	An Extension Lecture was given by Dr. Sandhya Bansal from on "Addressing Learning Gaps".
2.	21.01.2020	A Guest Lecture on Career Opportunities was delivered by the SDM Naraingarh and Employment Officer Haryana. All the final year students attended the lecture.
3.	06.02.2020-08.02.2020	Pre placement training workshop organized by Department of Higher Education Haryana. Students from Government College Naraingarh and Government College Chhachharuli participated in this placement training.
4.	11.02.2020	An extension lecture on career opportunities for commerce students was delivered by Dr. R.K. Singla
5.	24.02.2020	An expert lecture on "Resume Writing and Career Opportunities for Computer Science Students was delivered by " Dr. Gaurav Bhatla".

A two day Mega Job Fest was held at Government PG College Panchkula Sec-1 on 12.02.2020 and 13.02.2020, B.Sc Final year students of the college participated in the Job fest. 16 students of the college were shortlisted by various companies.

On campus placement drive was also held at the college for the first time. Competent Synergies a leading BPO in Mohali/ Chandigarh location offered Job letters to 11 students of the college.